

Chanel Christoff Davis

Founder/CEO
Dallas, TX
+1 972 488 5000
chanel@ddhtax.com

Professional Background

Chanel Christoff Davis is a founding partner and CEO of the award-winning firm Davis Davis & Harmon LLC – Sales Tax Experts (DDH). Established in 2001, DDH is the largest woman and minority-owned sales tax advisory practice in the nation. DDH services Global 100 and Fortune 15 corporations by delivering innovative tax solutions that return money to their client’s bottom line. As President/CEO of DDH, Ms. Davis has managed client relations, distribution channel management, and the day-to-day management decisions of the firm.

Specialties

Chanel's specialties include branding, business strategy, growing and scaling businesses, industry disruption, branding, supplier diversity, sales tax audit defense, sales tax audit management, sales tax refund audits, sales tax process controls/compliance reviews, sales tax training & seminars, sales tax voluntary disclosures, sales tax legal research/opinions, and Sarbanes-Oxley.

Experience

- She was previously a Senior Consultant at a Big 4 Firm and has conducted numerous financial statement and 401K plan audits within the technology, manufacturing, real estate, and not-for-profit industries. Her experience includes managing teams of auditors in conducting audit procedures, developing the scope of the audit, audit work plans, audit programs, writing annual financial statements and business recommendations.
- Chanel is a Board Member of the Women’s Business Council –Southwest and the Women's Business Executive National Council Forum.
- She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., The National Association of Black Accountants, and the Institute of Professionals in Taxation.
- Chanel holds a dual Bachelor of Science in Accounting and Management from the University of New Orleans and is an alumna of the Goldman Sachs 10,000.
- In addition to managing DDH, Davis is a highly sought public speaker and the host of the podcast “Follow The Leader,” which can be found on all podcasting platforms.